

Task Force Scope

Review the legal, operational and policy considerations related to the quality of Non-Project Water that is introduced into the CAP System, with the goal of developing recommended standards for approval by the Board and Reclamation

Task Force Schedule

